Report on the Celebration of Mahatma Phule Jayanti

Date: 11/04/2025

Vidya Pratishthan's Indapur English Medium School solemnly celebrated Mahatma Jyotirao Phule Jayanti with great respect and enthusiasm to honour the contributions of the social reformer and educationist at school auditorium on 11th April 2025. The event aimed to enlighten students about the values and legacy of Mahatma Phule, a pioneer of women's education and a champion for social justice.

The programme began by performing the photo pooja of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule. The highlight of the celebration was the insightful lecture delivered by the esteemed guest speaker, Mr. Amar Borate. In his address, he emphasized the revolutionary work of Mahatma Phule in the fields of education, social equality, and the upliftment of the marginalized. He inspired the students to follow in the footsteps of Mahatma Phule by promoting inclusive education and standing against social injustice.

The guest lecture by Mr. Amar Borate beautifully connected Mahatma Phule's life with present-day relevance, leaving a lasting impact on the students. The celebration was a meaningful experience that enriched the moral compass and social understanding of all who attended.

The event was meticulously organized under the guidance of the Principal, Dr. Jyoti Jagtap. The overall planning was done by teacher Mrs. Sushma Borate and Mr. Vijay Naval.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Mr. Amar Borate for his valuable insights. Mr. Vijay Naval anchored the entire programme gracefully, maintaining the spirit of the occasion and engaging the audience throughout.

Overall, the celebration was a great success and served its purpose of educating young minds about the remarkable contributions of Mahatma Jyotirao Phule.
